

Holiday Red Velvet Puppy Chow

Serves: ~10

Ingredients:

5 C. Rice Chex cereal
1 C. white chocolate melts or chips
2 oz cream cheese, room temp
1 1/2 Tbsp. milk
1 C. Red Velvet Cake mix
1/2 C. powdered sugar
Holiday colored M&M's or other candies

*Note: I didn't have enough chocolate coating to cover the cereal, so I would recommend doubling the chocolate, cream cheese, and milk

Directions:

Measure out Rice Chex cereal and place into a large bowl.

Place cake mix and powdered sugar into a large plastic bag or tupperware with a lid.

Melt chocolate in the microwave. Heat in 30 second intervals, stirring in between.

Stir cream cheese and milk into the chocolate (the chocolate will get thicker, but it's okay).

Pour chocolate over Rice Chex cereal and stir until coated.

Dump cereal into the bag or tupperware with powdered sugar and cake mix. Shake, shake, shake until coated.

Dump onto a cookie sheet and let cool.

Mix with colorful candies and serve!

NOTE: Because of the cream cheese, keep in the fridge if you won't be eating them that day.
